

I am tired of receiving telephone calls all hours of the day and evening, showing up as unknown number, unknown name. They never leave any message on my answering machine. I am handicapped and find it not only bothersome, but extreemly anoying.